

The Secretary of the Army awarded The Army Commendation Medal with Combat Device to U.S. Army Specialist Dominic O'Neil, son of Kimberly O'Neil. John O'Neil and Anne Reed are Dominic's proud grandparents.

Dominic, a Hurleyville firefighter, received the award for his "commendable service while serving in support of Operation Inherent Resolve", the operational name for the U.S. military intervention against the Islamic State of Iraq and Syria. The award represents recognition for Dominic's dedication to excellence and his exceptional commitment to duty.
